
HAWAII'S DAUGHTERS GUILD, INC.

The Hawai'i's Daughters Guild was established in 1970 by a small group of Hawaiian women who had gathered together to share customs, recall days gone by shared with family and friends, learn coping mechanisms for living away from home, and to figure out a way to educate their children. Although college scholarships existed for young men and women, it was more difficult for women to find assistance. This led to the birth of the Hawai'i's Daughters Guild. A club dedicated to perpetuating the arts and cultural values of Hawai'i while working to assist young women of Polynesian ancestry achieve their educational objectives. To date, the club has awarded more than $150,000 in scholarships.
